

I find Sinclair's misuse of public airwaves to push blatant propaganda insulting and completely abusive of its power to influence the American public.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is sickening that any huge media conglomerate (regardless of political affiliation) can force its stations to push its political agenda.

The FCC needs to protect the American public and stop Sinclair from airing propaganda in a cheap attempt to sway voters.